

I welcome the move to IT based registration and soon thereafter applied to voting also.

New Zealand have an excellent system. It is a country similar to ours. Copy them.

When I was young a local political activist registered me several times. I only learned about this subsequently and I cancelled the improper registrations.

It should be strictly personal registration only.

Good luck with your initiative.

Patrick J O'Connor